Detached House with Pool in Vale de Lousas

This magnificent property, completely walled and set on a vast plot of 4,200 m², is surrounded by large green areas and has an elegant private pool. With two floors, the villa has four bedrooms, two of them suites and one of them converted into an office, ensuring comfort and a luxurious environment.

The spacious living room, equipped with a cozy fireplace for colder days, also benefits from air conditioning in some areas, providing maximum well-being. The interiors, marked by abundant natural light, highlight the excellent finishes and the solid and efficient construction. The practical and functional kitchen includes a dining area, complemented by an additional dining room, making the spaces practical and inviting. Direct access to the garden from the rooms on the ground floor creates a perfect harmony between the indoor and outdoor environments.
